

Candlelight Ceremony

To Kick-Off

Mental Illness Awareness Week

“The Power of Listening”

Kevin Briggs, a California Highway Patrol sergeant, spent many years patrolling the Golden Gate Bridge where he encountered numerous individuals clinging to life by a thread. With his innate ability of “listening to understand”, he encouraged many of them back from the edge and became known as the “Guardian of the Golden Gate Bridge”. Now retired, he dedicates his life to promote mental health awareness.

When: Sunday evening, October 6, 2019

Where: Performance Hall in DeMattias
Fine Arts Center at Newman
University, 3100 McCormick Ave.

Reception and exhibits: 6:00-7:00 P.M.

Program and Ceremony: 7:00-8:30 P.M.

The Candlelight Ceremony is free and open to the public.

